CAFE

Our in-house café is named after one of this area's earliest and most respected mountain guides - Bill Peyto. Bill began guiding in 1893 and became a park warden in 1913. A true mountain man, many stories regarding his character have been passed down. One of the more famous tales stems from Bill's sideline career as a live-trapper for the Banff Park Zoo. After catching a lynx, Bill packed it up, strapped it to his back and headed into town. A little thirsty after a hot day in the backcountry, he stopped by the nearest "watering hole" at a busy Banff hotel. Not one for company, Bill is said to have released his captive lynx into the bar. Unsurprisingly the place emptied—leaving Peyto alone in peace. He enjoyed his drink, packed the lynx back up on his back and continued on to present it to Norman Sanson, curator of the Banff Park Museum, who paid the pricey sum of $25 for the animal!
